

CAW / McMASTER Labour Studies Program needs your input.

Windsor area CAW members are currently doing a research project with regards to the local labour market and would appreciate you taking a few minutes to fill out an on-line questionnaire. Please note that this survey is confidential and you will not be asked for your name, email address or any other identifying information. Survey results will be used to inform a research project associated with the CAW-McMaster University Labour Studies Certificate Program.

You can participate in this important project by clicking on this link:
