

CAW Local 200 Retiree Bill Ellwood Celebrates His 100th Birthday

Brother Bill Ellwood was born February 7, 1906. Bill retired from Ford in 1969 after 42½ years of service. He spent most of his time at Ford on the flywheel balancing job and retired out of the foundry. Brother Ellwood is the father of 9 children with two of them working at Ford. Bill was an excellent backyard mechanic and also restored furniture as a hobby.

He served on Motor Employees Credit Union for many years. Bill used to come to the Local 200 Hall to play cribbage every week while his children went to the movies. His father also worked at Ford. Brother Ellwood attributes his long life to never smoking and riding a bike for transportation. Bill experiences muscular problems in his leg his but is otherwise in very good health.

CAW Local 200 Financial Secretary Dave Crosswell visited with Brother Ellwood to extend congratulations and birthday wishes from the Executive Board and General Membership of CAW Local 200.
